IDGR Transfer Application

Any change of ownership requires that the Transfer is filled out and signed by the person who is transferring ownership within 60 days. If the person transferring ownership does not have transfer of ownership for animals they acquired, then this person does not have legal right to transfer ownership of animal or offspring to another person.

If transfers on the animal have not been submitted or paid for to IDGR, all late transfers must be submitted and paid for before the goat will be registered to the new owner.

We at International Goat, Sheep, Camelid Registry comply with USDA Scrapie law
Note: All transfers should be sent to our office using this online form or via email message at idgrfiber@gmail.com
Transfers: any change of ownership including sale, give away or trade. Ensure USDA-approved Identification physically on animal before you accept the animal.
We will send you a Temporary acceptance of transfer , which will work for temporary Identification of Transport or Identification of animals, until IGSCR office can process your transfer and issue a new Certificate of Registration.
Fees: Members $3.50 (without photo)/$4.50 (with photo on certificate) Non-Members or Late transfers: $6.00
